About Me Frontend Developer!

I am Sandhiya Arasu, an aspiring web developer with expertise in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and MySQL. Currently pursuing a BA in English (graduating in 2025), I dedicate my free time to learning modern technologies like React.js, Java, and Spring Boot.

Passionate about building interactive and user-friendly websites, I have independently completed several projects that demonstrate my adaptability and eagerness to learn. My goal is to contribute to innovative projects and grow as a developer in the dynamic tech industry.
